NCPMI Guidance on Pyramid Model State Leadership Teams

- Based on her divisions TA with the NCPMI leadership for Pyramid Model work within Part C – and she presented the state-wide BOQ for state leadership teams. The NCPMI said that Maryland was not eligible for the current TA offer due to the fact that we do not have most of the BOQ items in place. State leadership teams committed to reviewing the subsections in teams and dedicating the next meeting to completing a draft of this to then inform our goals for the upcoming year to become more aligned with the national standards.

Report from Boston Institute on Suspension and Expulsion

- Last month, Tresa, Kate, Margo, Nancy and several other child care directors attended Harvard University Graduate School of Education's Institute on Suspension and Expulsion and reported to the state leadership team the major focuses of the two day presentations: SEFEL Pyramid Model, Early Childhood Mental Health Consultations and implicit bias.
